Gold Scholarship Application

Scholarship Information:

Quota International Inc. is a 89-year-old international service organization that links members of all ages, occupations and nationalities in a worldwide network of service and friendship. With a motto of "we share," Quotarians are known especially for their service to deaf, hard-of-hearing and speech impaired individuals as well as disadvantaged women and children.

Quota International of Indiana, PA, Inc., with 52 active members, meets monthly at the Indiana Elks and is 54 years old.

The Quota Gold Scholarship, established in honor and memory of charter members Rose Reschini and Fran Supinka upon the occasion of Quota's 50th (gold) anniversary, is designed to offer financial support to a non-traditional female student who has successfully completed the New Choices, New Options program and who has gained acceptance to a program to further her education in order to accomplish her professional and career goals.

Applicants must complete this form and submit it along with two letters of recommendation, one of which must come from a member of the New Choices, New Options program, along with proof of acceptance to a recognized post-secondary program, in order to be considered for the scholarship. The scholarship value is a maximum of $500.00

How would the Quota Gold Scholarship make a difference in your life? (you may attach a typed copy on a separate sheet)

Applicants must complete this form and submit it along with two letters of recommendation, including a letter of recommendation from a member of the New Choices, New Options program, along with proof of acceptance to a recognized post-secondary program, in order to be considered for the scholarship. You will be notified by Quota International of Indiana, PA, Inc. via a letter regarding your application within 60 days of receipt. A personal interview may be conducted by member(s) of the organization prior to the award of the scholarship. The winner of the scholarship must agree to attend one of the monthly Quota dinner meetings. There will be no expense to the winner for this meeting. It is simply an opportunity for our members to meet and congratulate you. The winner must agree to have a photo taken by the Indiana Gazette recognizing the scholarship. The winner's $500 will be paid directly to the post-secondary educational organization in the student's name.
